

Do you know how to retrieve and find electronic reports in your software?

Feedback from members of the ABHI Change Management Group indicates that GPs may not know where electronic Specialist and Allied Health reports are located in the clinical software. In MD these reports are stored either in the 'Results' section or there is an option to store them in the 'Letters' or 'Documents' section.