

Secure Messaging – cost savings

A General Practice can save an estimated $7,000 per doctor per year by receiving Specialist and Allied Health letters and reports electronically, rather than via post or fax through reduced administrative tasks. A single doctor Specialist Practice will save between $9600 and $12000 per year in staff administration time, postage, fax, stationary costs per year by sending reports electronically to GPs.