

Associate Member Awarded

Queensland pharmacist and GMSBML Associate Member, Chris Freeman, has just been named the Pharmaceutical Society of Australia's 'Young Pharmacist of the Year' for his dedication to the pharmacy profession.

For the past two and half years Mr Freeman has worked in an integrative environment at Camp Hill Medical Centre in Brisbane and has facilitated other pharmacists into this environment across Australia.

To view interview with Chris please view:

<http://www.psa.org.au/about/excellence-awards/young-pharmacist-of-the-year>